

A very special book....

One of our school volunteers Mr John Gulden, has written a book about his life for his family and he was kind enough to share extracts with year 6 this term.

It was fascinating for the children to hear about his life experiences and to ask him questions about his life.