

This term year 6 worked hard to create, rehearse and perform a modern dance, based around a theme of "Curiosity", as a part of the South Dartmoor Academy's transition for its year 6 pupils. Children had the opportunity to meet other pupils from local feeder schools and to work with professional music and dance teachers at South Dartmoor. These pictures show the dress rehearsal that took place in school before the public performance at South Dartmoor.

